2007 Volunteer Service Project Application

City of Boulder Youth Opportunities Program

The Community Service Fund is designed to pay for the cost of materials necessary to do a Volunteer Service Project. The project must be within Boulder City limits and be done by City of Boulder middle or high school age residents.

Applications are reviewed by the Youth Opportunities Advisory Board (YOAB) at their business meetings, held the first Friday of each month during the school year. Contact the office for information on applications submitted during the summer.

Please type the application. An electronic version of this form is available by e-mail from Alice Swett, or at <http://www.yoab.org>. Applications are reviewed by the Youth Opportunities Advisory Board (YOAB). Please be thorough and specific in answering all questions.

Receipts must be submitted for all purchases made for funded projects. A report form about the project must be filled out once the project has been completed.

Applications are due by the 15th of each month, August-April, to:
